

Granny

Vic Chesnutt

Granny, Oh Granny
Whatya doin' by the kitchen sink?
She said I'm just makin' up some milk 'n' cheese
She said I'm just makin' up some milk 'n' cheese
She said I'm just makin' up some milk 'n' cheese

Granny, Oh Granny
Whatya doin' with your false teeth?
She said I'm just pickin' out the blackberry seeds
She said I'm just pickin' out the blackberry seeds
She said I'm just pickin' out the blackberry seeds

Granny, Oh Granny
Where did your husband, my grandaddy go?
Where did your husband, my grandaddy go?
She said he went off to heaven just before you were born
She said he went off to heaven just before you were born
She said he went off to heaven just before you were born

She said you are the light of my life and the beat of my heart
She said you are the light of my life and the beat of my heart
She said you are the light of my life and the beat of my heart
She said you are the light of my life and the beat of my heart
