

We Should Be So Brave

Vic Chesnutt

We should be so brave:
You're always pulling for the underdog
I know you're always pulling for me
You are a champion of the shattered
I know you're always so supportive of me
You're so intrigued by the oddities
I always piqued your curiosity
You're always for the unfortunates
I know you're always right there for me
I don't need to look in the mirror to know just where i sit in the scheme of things
I don't need a doctor's exam to tell me why i can fly
Your liberal life is like social work
I know you'll always socialize with me
You're one to stick up for the downtrodden
I know you're always in there fighting for me
I don't need to look in the mirror to know just where i sit in
the scheme of things
I don't need a doctor's exam to tell me why i can fly.
Bless his little heart, he's doing the best that he can
Such an inspiration to us all,
We should be so brave
