

Bad News Breaker

Vicci Martinez

Sometimes you can't take back what you just said
Sometimes you can't take back what you just did
Lipstick stains my dirty laundry
I know, I know, I know
You put your foot down
Start the countdown

Lie still in the morning glow
Yellows and golds of a Van Gogh (lie still)
Cause when you wake up
There's no chance we'll make up

I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker

I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker

Sometimes you can't make up with a bouquet
Sometimes you can't take back what you don't say

Floorboards creak, my footsteps confess
One more, one more, one more
Another red dress
Was a hot mess

Lie still in the morning glow
Yellows and golds of a Van Gogh (lie still)
Cause when you wake up
There's no chance we'll make up

I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker

I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker
I'm always the bad news breaker

Lie still in the morning glow
Yellows and golds of a Van Gogh (lie still)
Cause when you wake up
I'm always the bad news breaker

I'm always the bad news breaker
