

Fire In Her Eyes

Vicci Martinez

Another day goes by
And shes still wonders why
A life so innocent
Should never have to cry
And every night she prays for the pain to go away
Love and happiness
Forever they shall stay

The fire in her eyes
Calls out to the hearts that bleed
The fire in her eyes
Will make you smile
She wanted to make you smile

She fills up all her time
She never wastes a day
And has no time to rest, but shes smiling anyway
Still she hurts inside
Like everyone and all of us
When my day fills up with clouds she'll always be the sun

The fire in her eyes
Calls out to the hearts that bleed
The fire in her eyes
Lends a hand to those who need
The fire in her eyes
Waits for the day when she can sing
The fire in her eyes
Will make you smile
She wanted to make you smile

The fire in her eyes
Calls out to the hearts that bleed
The fire in her eyes
It lends a hand to those who need it
The fire in her eyes
Waits for the day day when she can sing
The fire in her eyes
Will make you smile
She wanted to make you smile
