

Rain

Vicci Martinez

The rain falls
To drown your worries
And another cry
To help you let go

And a few words
To stop this hurting
And the sunrise
To open the door

Let go of yourself
We spend too much time trying
When everything already is
And remember yourself
And then you'll begin flying
Like a feather in the wind

And the new days
Another journey
And a new seed
To plant your own truth

And the bright lights
To guide your purpose
With fresh ground
Your tree can finally grow

Let go of yourself
We spend so much time trying
When everything already is
And remember yourself
And then you'll begin flyinnng
Like a feather in the wind

Come on breathe in, breathe in
Like a feather
In the wind

Ohhhhhhhhh

Let it rain
Rain down on me love
Let it rain
Yeah rain down on me love
Let it raiiiiinnn
Rain down on me love
Let it rain
Rain down on me, rain down
Let it rain
