Run Run Run

Vicci Martinez

This is the road I want to take This is the choice I want to make This is the life that I create, yeah, yeah

Is this the start of something new? Is this my only way to you? This is the best that I can do, yeah, yeah

Where do we go? Oh, oh, I want to know Where do we go? Oh, oh, I want to know

Why do I run, run, run, run? Why do I run, run, run, run? The days go by I can't deny I can't erase your face Why do I run, run, run, run?

This is the day I have to face This is the moment to embrace This is something I can't replace, yeah, yeah

Where do we go? Oh, oh, I want to know Where do we go? Oh, oh, I want to know

Why do I run, run, run, run? Why do I run, run, run, run? The days go by I can't deny I can't erase your face Why do I run, run, run, run?

From the only home
I've ever known
From what I just found
And in circles all around
From the ones I love
And the stars above
To another space
I'm just trying to find my place
Am I right or wrong
Where do I belong
Will I ever stay
Hey, I wanna know
Where do I go
Why do I run?
Why do I run, run, run, run?

Why do I run, run, run, run? Why do I run, run, run, run?

The days go by I can't deny I can't erase your face Why do I run, run, run, run? Tištěno z pisnicky-akordy.cz
