

what you say I can't translate from that false and friendly face we should excommunicate so you say you're on my side charges dismissed and denied self importance gratified

he's the egomaniac
good at making you look bad spinning lies behind your back beware the egomaniac

desperation's where he's at sneaking up behind your back beware the egomaniac, beware the egomaniac little Caesar on his throne holds the power all alone this career must be postponed make the journey twice as hard acting like a superstar who the fuck d'you think you are?
