

Where Are They All Now?

Vice Squad

All boys together, I was odd girl out playing with fire, playing too loud living on nothing, surviving on dreams my mind is a waste land of what should have been

Where are they all now
does anybody know?
We had some good times going against the flow

He played out of time, he sang out of tune spent all his rent on a new tattoo he got into drugs late, then got a new girl played mummies and daddies just for the thrill

I never believed we'd end up like this as I lie on my bed and reminisce The years go by, for better or worse has it been a blessing or a killer curse?
