

Echoes of Silence

Violator

Centuries of massacre are still not over
Hunger and Death still remains
A silent extermination is at full force
When collide to corporations plans
Invisible Death!

Expelled by the continuing colonization
Land and water ripped apart
One-Sided struggle to revert this action
And save what left from what they deprive Unseen Terror!

Echoes of Silence
Genocide
Echoes of Silence
Enslaved by their force

Murder and dismemberment as Strategies
Indians facing suicide as solution threatened by fear

This is the effects of the devastation
Of a progress model that fuels
International capital and its limbs
Draining life from our earth
