

False Messiah

Violator

Civilization is putrefying
And it feels like the end of times
New idols ascending
These idols must fall

To hell, we'll bring you fire, so hollow be your name
Shall history bury your fame and time forget what you create

You liar
Bastard

There will be no reverence
Expect nothing but fight
Salvation is a fool's force
We must leave behind

There's no humanity in your savagery
So I must declare you my eternal enemy

We'll look in your eyes and spit on your face
Turn all your crosses on the upside down
And we won't be afraid anymore,
We'll be proud to say: fuck off and die
