Good Friend

Violent Femmes

If only you could know How I'd love you so The way good friends do The way I would be you And me too, I'd be your Good friend, I'd be your Good friend, I'd be your Good friend That's what I would've been Oh but everytime I turn around My heart's on the mend These feelings I have I have to suspend Seems like everytime I turn around My heart's on the mend Because I don't think you want me To be your good friend Yesterday is a laugh And the traumas slip past And I don't think That I'll be doing a lot of crying But I'll sure do my share of sighing I would have been your...