Doomsday

Viron

On a far horizon the sky touches the earth Threatening clouds forerunning changes soon the table turns

We yearned for a promised land And fate laid in our our hands

Now feel the power Gaia fight too many signs unheard Oh dying world your legacy who will be there to earn Lightning strikes, fire rises, thunder growls, storm

front rolls

There will be no turning back - the dies are cast

On a far horizon we see our coming end Days of changes sealing all apocalypse is planned
