

Tears Of Babylon

Virtuocity

Bastard child of misery, alone in the dark again
Trying to dream of finding a way back home
Where's your father, where's your mother?
I'm the king of Babylon, I'm the son of gods from Osiris and Ra

Step by step, stone by stone they're building my golden tomb
Whips in the air, masses on the ground
Obey my commands or you will die

I am the king of Babylon from beyond the time of eternity
Finding the key beyond the universe, beyond reality, through the gates in stars

Step by step, stone by stone
Tears of Babylon
Step by step, stone by stone
Tears of Babylon
Step by step, stone by stone
