

The Devil whispers

Vivid

Let the chimes ring across the sky again and again as that day

With tears streaming down my face

I cry to the HOV
Please hear my voice

I stretched my hands
To the heavens

The Devil whispers
I'll destroy everything you dislike. Let's get started

The Devil whispers
Release the avarice in your heart
Then I'll give you everything your heart desires

Let the chimes ring across the sky again and again

I'll sell my soul
If it saves me from oblivion

The Devil whispers
I'll destroy everything you dislike. Let's get started

The Devil whispers
Release the avarice in your heart
Then I'll give you everything your heart desires

I shut my eyes so that the tears won't come streaming down my face, can't hold on any more

The Devil whispers
I'll destroy everything you dislike. Let's get started

The Devil whispers
Release the avarice in your heart
Then I'll give you everything your heart desires
