

I'm Sorry

Vixen

You wasted everything from me and so much more
I couldn't fill that glass so you walked right out my door
Your expectations of an ordinary girl
Were more than I could give, but I gave you my world

Babe, I'm sorry that I couldn't change your live
Give it more meaning
And babe, I'm sorry that I wasted all your time
Forgive me for loving you

We let accusations fly, but it all sounds the same
You shared my life, now you won't even share the blame
You're one in a million, you couldn't make me feel that way
Yeah you broke my heart, but I still love you anyway

Babe, I'm sorry that I couldn't change your live
Give it more meaning
And babe, I'm sorry that I wasted all your time
Forgive me for loving you

If you want me to let you be, why'd you say that you needed me?
Why the hell won't you set me free?

Babe, I'm sorry that I couldn't change your live
Give it more meaning
And babe, I'm sorry that I wasted all your time
Forgive me for wanting you
Forgive me for needing you
Forgive me for loving you
