

All Because Of You

Votchi

All I know is I need you so.
All I know is that I was a fool in your eyes.
You plucked my heart like a blossom from a rose,
But the wind blew it away.

My whole world fell to pieces
Nothing really stays the same
Now I know I fell in love with you
But you ran off with no return
[You ran off on the way of no return]

But I did it all because of you.
I did it all because of you.
Yes I did it 'cause of you.
Yes I did it 'cause of you.

But you have to know
I did it all because of you.
I did it all because of you.
Yes I did it 'cause of you .
Yes I did it 'cause of you.
