

Melody

Votchi

Once I believed in the great of its glory
But I was thrown to the sea of Its comedy
Something ironic
Something mysterious
(I) felt everywhere overcome by the teaser
waaa

At the scenery
I'd be drawn to the depths of your melody
Feel so mischievous, pathetic
Free my soul, I beg you so, can't stand it!

Come from the hell that disturbs your serenity
You're about to break, you're my game, I hit you...
From time to time I will feed from your energy
You can't escape, you're my place, I OWN YOU!!!
When you feel down, it reaches its victory
Enticing your mind with its seductive song
Go and decide whether you kneel to its majesty
Careful you'll fall somewhere apart

Blood speeds my pulse, feels strange in my body
Need a miracle to defeat this enemy
Face the emotion
Seek for direction
Fight the trick to get out this situation

Here I'm on your way
You can't say my name
But I will fill your space
But I'm real out of a fake
(you) Can't stop me
.....Stunned....
To my fears i belong
Bewitch can't take so long
I'll make it

[REF]:
It's its hammer
Can make me gone
I feel managed
When It gets me wrong
I feel madness
Can do me wrong
I feel managed
When It gets me wrong

Wake up your soul, think your mood doesn't make you
Often it's hard on your heels to devour you
There's a wrong gate
Use your canon
Get the right one, it loves so much to ravel

[REF]:
It's its hammer
Can make me gone

I'm a slave to you
When you get me wrong
I feel madness
Can do me wrong
I feel managed
When It gets me wrong
