

Rainbow

Votchi

I'm staring at the sun with my head in the sky
minute after minute is passing by

Watch the sky!
Kingdom's there,
You shall pass,
you're almost there!

R:
Have you ever watched the rainbow?
the rainbow shining in the sky,
Mighty color of the rainbow,
slightly working through your mind.

I'm feeling like I'm hypnotized,
looking in the demon's eyes,
I never felt as good, as I'm feeling now!

I'm staring at the sun with my head in the sky
minute after minute is passing by

Watch the sky!
Kingdom's there,
You shall pass,
you're almost there!

R:
Have you ever watched the rainbow?
the rainbow shining in the sky,
Mighty color of the rainbow,
slightly working through your mind.

Everyone come near the rainbow,
one step closer each day lies,
I'm walking through the ark of the rainbow,
like the old man when he dies.

Sparkling rain is gently falling,
it shows you the way to shining eyes,
seven lights on the ark of the rainbow,
seven secrets in the sky.
