

Robber

Votchi

I am the robber baby I steal your heart
I'm full of you honey with a fire inside
My mother told me to be so nice and kind
But I'm the looser baby thief of your time

Show me what's your meaning of life
Show me there's no need to hide
So tell me reason baby why you're so strong
I need to understand

I climbed the highest mountain and I won't fall down
My heartbeat is getting faster as I see your hometown
I'll bring you billion flowers growing like you
So come up with me honey it's up to you

I am the robber baby I steal your heart
I'm full of you honey with a fire inside

Show me what's your meaning of life
Show me there's no need to hide
So tell me the reason why you're feeling so strong
I need to understand

Show me what's your meaning of life
Show me I'm getting so tired
So tell me the reason, I'm not your clown
You turn me upside down
You turn me inside out
