

Hungover

Wade Bowen

Hungover, I aint even had a drop to drink
Now I'm just kicking myself and wishin like hell
I could take back everything

Hungover, there ain't a bottle or can in sight
Thinking the only thing left
Is I must've been getting drunk on my own damn pride
Hungover

Lookin in the mirror, two bloodshot eyes
Quiet as a noise like a lightning strike
Wondering where you are
What happened last night
Cause I dont remember at all

I'm looking for longneck, regret explanation
Jim and Jack fallback reason that

I'm hungover, I aint even had a drop to drink
Now I'm just kicking myself and wishin like hell
I could take back everything

Hungover, there ain't a bottle or can in sight
Is I must've been getting drunk on my own damn pride
Hungover

Well I wonder when the sun came through
Did it feel like you had a few too many last night
Did it feel like a hammer on your head
Waking up next to an uncold bottle of wine

I'm looking for longneck, regret explanation
Jim and Jack fallback reason that
I'm hungover

Ooh hungover, I aint even had a drop to drink
Now I'm just kicking myself and wishin like hell
I could take back everything

Hungover, there ain't a bottle or can in sight
Is I must've been getting drunk on my own damn pride
Drunk on my own damn pride
Hungover
Hungover
Hungover

There ain't a bottle or can in sight
I ain't even had a drop to drink
