

Me Against Myself

Wage War

Is it me against myself?
I feel like someone else
Cause I can't find my way back home
And I don't wanna do it alone
Is it me against myself?
And everybody else
Cause I can't fix this on my own
And I don't wanna do it alone

Had a talk with myself
Try to smile and wish me well
Feel like I'm a broken shell
Hard to lie when you're overwhelmed
It still hurts when you're numb
Every walk becomes a run
It's gettin' hard to hold on
When you come undone cause

Lately everything around keeps changing
I been thinking that maybe
Maybe I'm to blame
Maybe we're both the same

Is it me against myself?
I feel like someone else
Cause I can't find my way back home
And I don't wanna do it alone
Is it me against myself?
And everybody else
Cause I can't fix this on my own
And I don't wanna do it alone

Alone
Alone
No I don't wanna do it alone
Alone
Alone

It's hard to look back
When you have to face the facts
That the person that I was
Isn't coming back cause

Lately everything around keeps changing
I been thinking that maybe
Maybe I'm to blame
Maybe we're both the same

Is it me against myself?
I feel like someone else
Cause I can't find my way back home
And I don't wanna do it alone
Is it me against myself?
And everybody else
Cause I can't fix this on my own
And I don't wanna do it alone

Alone
Alone
No I don't wanna do it alone
Alone
Alone

Lately everything around keeps changing
I been thinking that maybe
Maybe I'm to blame
Maybe we're both the same

Lately everything around keeps changing
I been thinking that maybe
Maybe I'm to blame
Maybe we're both the same
(Maybe we're both the same)

Is it me against myself?
I feel like someone else
Cause I can't find my way back home
And I don't wanna do it alone
(I feel like someone else)

Is it me against myself?
I feel like someone else
