

Still Life

Wakey!Wakey!

I've been on a losing streak
Ever since I lost my mind
I can barely find my feet
I can barely keep my eyes on the prize

Everything is standing still
Everything is out of time
Feel the words leave my lips
But they never land quite right

Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you

Here in a still life
But I'll be alright
Yeah I'll be alright

I got what it takes to win
Also what it takes to lose
Part of me is wearing thin
All the other parts are worrying who

Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you

Here in a still life
But I'll be alright
Yeah I'll be alright

And nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
Nothing is the same without you
