

Uptown Girl, uptown girl, I had a crush on you, oh uptown girl...

War from a Harlots Mouth

love...is my everlasting war!
it was easy to give-in to temptation to glorify you and become dependent and you continued to fail to provide clarity and clar ity the signals were easy to misinterpret yet strong enough to attract my hope
what burden have I loaded on my shoulders even the strongest back threatens to collapse beneath it
do you hear me?
do you hear me?
you are out of reach but visible!
will this distance lead us together?
it isn't easy to forget who you are but please...please don't l imit me!
