

Sleight of Hand

War Of Ages

Buried by the weight of disaster
While plotting evil in the blink of an eye
Pulling you in with lies and deception
Only to stab you in the back with the other hand

Shattered life with a lying tongue
You quickly run into evil shedding innocent blood
False witness using wicked schemes
Based on lies raising hell from behind the scenes

Remove, us remove us from the lies
Failure, a failure of the mind

Redeemer of my soul
I'm running out of time
Awaken me
Redeemer of my soul
It's the end of the line
Awaken me

Shattered life with a lying tongue
You quickly run into evil shedding innocent blood
False witness using wicked schemes
Based on lies raising hell from behind the scenes

This is war on humanity
Stand through adversity
This is war on humanity
Stand through adversity

Remove, us remove us from the lies
Failure, a failure of the mind

Redeemer of my soul
I'm running out of time
Awaken me
Redeemer of my soul
It's the end of the line
Awaken me

Buried alive!
