

Hunt for Survival

Wardrum

It's always the same fear
That all of my screams will go unheard
But this was the last year
I wrongly spared
The past is no more on the side I'm facing
And the weak man I used to be
He's nothing to me now
He let go of me

Yesterday's a task that is complete
Tomorrow's a harvest to be reaped
This day is a sacred pledge to keep
The faithful leap
Life's a hunt for survival
And the dream is my pray

It's always the same deal
You dust your knees off and try again
I'll keep stretching limits
Untill I see
Reality glowing as if I'm dreaming
Till I am what I'm made to be
For nothing is missing I own all I need

Yesterday's a task that is complete
Tomorrow's a harvest to be reaped
This day is a sacred pledge to keep
The faithful leap
Life's a hunt for survival
And the dream is my prey

The past is no more on the side I'm facing
And the weak man I used to be
He's nothing to me now
He let go of me

Yesterday's a task that is complete
Tomorrow's a harvest to be reaped
This day is a sacred pledge to keep
The faithful leap

Life's a hunt for survival
And the dream is my prey
