

Cemetery Dirt

Warfare

The noise filth & fury the undecided jury
The crystal black snow no fire glow
Never been a friend just jealous to the end
One minute sex you cum, pathetic useless scum
A house that breeds disease you pray upon your knees
You choke on chewing nails your stupid fairy tales
You and your religion, but that just makes me board
Fuck u & fuck them & fuck your fuckin lord

You see with your ears not your eyes
Your boundaries have faded with dispise
Cos you see with your ears not your eyes
And I don't need your stupid lies

Use your loaf of bread & not your north and south
Nicked down battle cruiser left dealing with a loser
The eve of evolution a contracted solution
Elect give them payment no former arrangement
Love do what you will but you cant pay the bill
It's all taxed quotation they blow up half the nation
A working class degree for those who cannot see
You think that you cant hurt but your cemetery dirt

The knashing of your jaws & scratching of your claws
You dirty filthy huss you give it with no fuss
No juke box annables the marquee decibels
The ritz is blown to bits like london in the blitz
The scraps and the chips when theyre all ready fried
With no alibi you just lied and you lied
Esperanto parlance shit, you talk it every bit
You think you don't hurt but you're cemetery dirt
