Wrathchild

Just beyond the neonlights Where the city is full of rats It's a neverending fight Between good 'n' evil You must be strong Or you will die

You've got the guts And got the power To break out -So you ain't running

This is your story It's all about you Yeah it's all about you - Wrathchild You beat up everyone in your way - Never satisfied With a wall all around you

But you ain't gonna lose 'Cause you're the one (Who can) break the chains You ain't gonna lose 'Cause you're the one To run through hell and flames Warlock
