Your voice is a song
Sweet and long
I sing along
Your eyes are like pools
Bright and cool
they see through fools

I'll never change my point of view
(I wanted you to know the truth)
That everything I'll ever do
I do for you
All for you

Your hands, make me feel Feel for real Feel so healed My love is so true And my love Is all for you

Your voice is a song Sweet and long I sing along
