R: Relax your mind, your mind, your mind Relax your mind and let your conscious be freein you down to the sounds of the Warren G (2x)

It ain't easy bein Gz but the lifestyle I chose, the status to which I rose the doors, I open, I'm loccin, I'm scopin through the eyes of the G Child I see many try to duplicate the LBC style but it ain't even happenin like that I was time I had to make a comeback and get mine, you know I'm genuine been in motion with the potion with Snoop since 89 devotion is the key for me so, relax your mind and let your conscious be free the homey just touched down, foolin wit a pound put yo gun down, so you can walk a safe ground

I know it's been hard on you for about two, so I had to relax your mind, I thought you knew ain't nothin but a Long Beach party with yo hands in the air, with the twist of Coke and Bacardi all the homeys around and the slingshot t-shirts skirts wit the baby fat it'll work pass me the indosmoke and get locced from the beach to the bay, makin them sway like the ocean in motion, we coastin relax your mind and keep floatin (floatin, floatin) and walk a safe ground
