

The Devil's On The Loose

Waylon Jennings

There's somethin' in the world is goin' on
I can't understand it, and it sure feels wrong
Bad is lookin' good, good is lookin' bad
Sister, mother, brother, y'all think we've been had?

Whoo-o, the devil's on the loose
O-oh, you got to tell him, "No!"
Uptown, downtown, everywhere you look around
Inside, outside, stick it from the backside

Front hole, posthole, what does it hold in store?
Turn on, turn off, takin' what'll get you lost
Whoo-o, the devil's on the loose
O-oh, you got to tell him, "No!"
Shoot 'em shoot out, what's-ah life all about?
Payday, May Day, you go to get away
Fat cats, black cats, don't let 'em cross your paths
Bad scene, thirteen, every day is Halloween

Whoo-o, the devil's on the loose
O-oh, you to let him go
Whoo-o , the devil's on the loose
O-oh, you got to tell him, "No!"

Whoo-o , the devil's on the loose (yeah)
O-oh, you got to tell him, "No!"
