

They'll Never Know

Wayne Newton

I walk the lonely streets
I walk with my head held high
And no one will know
Inside, I'm the boy who lost you
I'll never see those angel eyes
You're just a devil in disguise
I'll hide it so, oh
They'll never know

Though people pass me by
They laugh as they walk on through
And no one will know, it's you
You're the girl who hurt me
I'll never see your lovely face
It's just a lonely, lonely place
I'll hide it so, oh
They'll never know

And all the time, until I scream and run
While I go on dreaming about you
For all this love that I've been giving
Must I go on living without you

I walk the lonely streets
I walk with my head held high
And no one will know
Inside, I'm the boy who lost you
I'll never see those angel eyes
You're just a devil in disguise
I'll hide it so, oh
They'll never know
Oh, they'll never know
Oh, they'll never know
Oh, they'll never know
Oh, they'll never know
Oh, they'll never know
