We Are Scientists

All these whispers and promises
All the hints and the solid pretexts

All we want is to be together
All we want is to be together

Every subtle and stolen glance
Can't be anymore obvious

All we want is to be together
All we want is to sleep together

Were only after one thing (6x)

All this ruptures in etiquette
All this comforting decadence

All we want is to be together
All we want is to sleep together

Were only after one thing (6x)

I'd love to know
What else we've done
Without the hope
Without the hope

Were only after one thing (10x)
