

Good for You

We Are the Ocean

I just can't get enough of you,
And the smell of your perfume.
The way you move
Electrifies the room -
You know that I'd be good for you.

In my imagination
Come upon a revelation
To solve of all my frustration -
You know that I'd be good for you.
She ain't no hallucination
Yet she's a flawless creation,
Causing a standing ovation -
I give in to you.

You shook me up, you pushed me down
You got me hooked, span me around
I know you'll make my dreams come true.

I just can't get enough of you,
And the smell of your perfume.
Makes me do things
I thought I'd never do
It's started something new,
You know that I'd be good for-

It don't need no explanation
But with your collaboration
We'd make a great combination -
How could you refuse?
It would be my obligation
In this ideal situation
To be your strong foundation -
Don't you want that too?

You took my hand, you tied my arms
You stole my heart with no alarm -
I still think I'm the man for you.
I've got the chills, they're multiplying
Let's make a deal, I hope you're buying
Into this dream I made for you.
And now I'm telling you.

I just can't get enough of you,
And the smell of your perfume.
The way you move electrifies the room -
Yeah there's no resisting you.
I just can't get enough of you,
I'm a gun waiting to shoot.
Makes me do things I thought I'd never do
You've started something new
You know that I'd be good for -

Now she's got me in her gaze
My fears dissolve and wash away
Time to step up to the plate -
But it's too late.

I just can't get enough of you
And the smell of your perfume.
Makes me do things I thought I'd never do
You know that I'd be good for -
I just can't get enough of you
And the smell of your perfume.
The way you move electrifies the room -
Yeah there's no resisting you.
I just can't get enough of you,
I'm a gun waiting to shoot.
Makes me do things I'd rather not do,
It's started something new,
You know that I'd be good for-
I'd be good for-
I'd be good for you.
