

Holy Fire

We Are the Ocean

I've got one last chance and I'm trying to make everything right,
And it feels like everyone's waiting for something to rise
If I reach for the stratosphere, will it be open my eyes?
If I follow these lights all night long, will they lead to the truth?!

Well if I'm wrong, when I'm honest in mistakes
Still it takes me time to find the words I want to say

Holy fire, I will go my way
Oh desire, take me there!
Let go, free fall under the pinnacle
I will go,
I've been feeling it all,
Now I know

Wanna take me in the empire of my sun
Another day comfort, at least I catch my strength
If I sat down my arms before battle and learn to be brave
Will I find myself standing up in the presence of grace?
And if I'm right, still I'm humble in the my ways
And when looking back, I'm proud to say there's nothing I would change!

Holy fire, I will go my way
Oh desire, take me there!
Let go, free fall under the pinnacle
I will go,
I've been feeling it all,
Now I know

Holy fire, I will go my way
Oh desire, take me there!
Let go, free fall under the pinnacle
I will go,
I've been feeling it all,
Now I know
