

Alive

We the Kings

You can break me down, eh
But it'll take a whole lot more
To keep me down, eh
'Cause I've been here before you
I'm a regular, eh
And nothing you can say
To me's original, eh
Yeah-yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah

Whether I stay or whether I go
I still got my mind, I still got control
I give it some time to feel like I'm more
Like the end of the line is the of the road
When everything stops, gimme the go
I turn up the heat, never turn into cold
I give you my all with my heart and my soul
And I never take silver, I only take gold

I'm alive for a reason
Should have died but I'm breathing
I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I'm alive for a reason
And I won't die, I'm not leaving
I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

Second chance, eh
And every single moment
I am living it, eh
The air that I am breathing
Isn't permanent, eh
There must be something here
I haven't finished yet, eh
Yeah-yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah

Whether I stay or whether I go
I still got my mind, I still got control
I give it some time to feel like I'm more
Like the end of the line is the of the road
When everything stops, gimme the go
I turn up the heat, never turn into cold
I give you my all with my heart and my soul
And I won't quit at silver so gimme the gold

I'm alive for a reason
Should have died but I'm breathing
I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I'm alive for a reason
And I won't die, I'm not leaving
I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

Whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh, whoa-oh
Whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh, whoa-oh

And I'm alive for a reason
And I won't die, I'm believing
That I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight

I'm alive for a reason
Should have died but I'm breathing
I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
I'm alive for a reason
And I won't die, I'm not leaving
I'm alive for a reason
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
