

Mama Knows Best

We the Kings

I wonder why I always care about her
When I never took care of myself
But now I'm gonna forget all about her, oh, oh
So she can't keep pulling me through hell

I can't believe I ever said I loved her
It took me so long just to see
But now I'm gonna listen to my mother, oh, oh
She is always looking out for me

I'm on my way to learning, I'm a better me
Without you, I was better off
Is one enough to my mama told me don't settle for less
She was right about all the rest

Mama knows best
(Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows)
Whatever she says
(Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows)
She could've just left but she knows
Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows
I gotta confess
That mama knows best

I can't believe I ever said I loved her
It took me so long just to see
But now I'm gonna listen to my mother, oh, oh
She is always looking out for me

I'm on my way to learning, I'm a better me
Without you, I was better off
Is one enough to my mama told me don't settle for less
She was right about all the rest

Mama knows best
(Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows)
Whatever she says
(Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows)
She could've just left but she knows
Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows
I gotta confess
That mama knows best

I don't know what you've been told
But I promise you that I'm not like them
I'm not like them
I was raised up better
I don't know what you've been told
But I promise you that I'm not like them
I'm not like them
I was raised up better
I don't know what you've been told
But I promise you that I'm not like them
I'm not like them
I was raised up better
I don't know what you've been told
But I promise you that I'm not like them

I'm not like them

Mama knows best

(Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows)

Whatever she says

(Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows)

She could've just left but she knows

Yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows

I gotta confess

That mama knows best

She knows, yeah, she knows, yeah, she knows
