

Ride

We the Kings

One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride

I don't need no one to tell me who I am
'Cause I've spent way too long wasting my time on them
I'm just trying to be me, I'm trying, I'm trying
I'm just trying to be me, I'm trying, I'm trying

I feel like I'm tearing myself into different directions
And I feel like I'm losing myself through the open incisions
And I, I know that I don't always make all the best of decisions
But I, I love the ride

So come on let's ride
So come on let's ride
So come on let's ride
So come on let's ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride

I don't need no one to tell me who I am
'Cause I've spent way too long wasting my time on them
I'm just trying to be me, I'm trying, I'm trying
I'm just trying to be me, I'm trying, I'm trying

I feel like I'm tearing myself into different directions
And I feel like I'm losing myself through the open incisions
And I, I know that I don't always make all the best of decisions
But I, I love the ride

So come on let's ride
So come on let's ride
So come on let's ride
So come on let's ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride

One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride
So come on let's ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride
So come on let's ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride

I love the ride
I love the ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride
I love the ride
I love the ride
One day I'll figure it out but for now I'll just ride
