

The Ocean and the Sun

We the Kings

I'm thinking I
Can finally sail away to somewhere nice
Where I can leave my worries far behind
Somewhere in the distance I can hide
Oh-oh-oh, oh

And maybe I
Would fall in love and waste a little time
And maybe I could add somebody in my life
You'd be all I need to live, oh, you and I

You and I, the ocean and the sun
It could be you and I, the ocean and the sun
You and I, the ocean and the sun
You and I, the ocean and the sun

Take me back then
To the honeymoon we prayed would never end
To the isle where our love forever is
As long as I have you that place forever lives
Oh-oh-oh, oh

Whenever I
When I need that little feeling in my life
I know a place that we can sail away and hide
Where the only thing that's there is you and I

You and I, the ocean and the sun
Could be you and I, the ocean and the sun
You and I, the ocean and the sun
You and I, the ocean and the sun

Everybody needs somebody
My somebody is nobody (Other than you)
Everybody needs somebody
My somebody is nobody, other than you
Other than you

It could be you and I, the ocean and the sun
You and I, the ocean and the sun
Could be you and I, the ocean and the sun
