

All That Glittered

We Were Promised Jetpacks

Come right in
Sit right there
But before we start
We should clear some air
How could you walk away
When there's still so much to say?

You, you've been leaning on me
I, I've been leaning on you

The truths right there
It's just underneath
And that shovels yours
So to speak
Who wants to dig it up?
Somethings are best left untouched

You, you've been leaning on me
I, I've been leaning on you

All that glittered, wasn't golden (now I know it)
All that glittered, wasn't golden

All that glittered wasn't golden

All that glittered, wasn't golden (now I know it)
All that glittered, wasn't golden

You, you've been leaning on me
I, I've been leaning on you