

Fat Chance

We Were Promised Jetpacks

It doesn't matter where you started
It doesn't matter where you've come from
It only matters where you're going
It only matters where you don't belong

I'll calculate the odds, they aren't in my favour
So I'll carry on like this, and I can make amends later
But all the lights have changed from red to green
I'm starting to regret missed opportunities

I thought I had a fat chance
Maybe one in millions
Did a complete 180
Now I'm going the right way

It doesn't matter where you started
It doesn't matter where you've come from
It doesn't matter that we're strangers
It doesn't matter if we're best friends

I'll calculate the odds, they aren't in my favour
So I'll carry on like this, and I can make amends later
But all the lights have changed from red to green
I'm starting to regret

I thought I had a fat chance
Maybe one in millions
Did a complete 180
Now I'm going the right way

I thought I had a fat chance
Maybe one in millions
Did a complete 180
Now I'm going the right way
