

Nothing Ever Changes

We Were Promised Jetpacks

Nothing you could do
Could put a dampener on this good mood
But you're welcome to try

Nothing ever happens
Unless you set yourself a challenge
Are you ready to go?

If nothings ventured
Nothings gained
I'd love to think of you again

Nothing ever changes
Until you rattle your own cages
Now is that what you want?

Laughing is contagious
As long as someone's there to share it
But there's no one around

If nothing's ventured
Nothing's gained
I long to talk with you again

The pain is worth the wait
But only if you know it's going away

If nothing's ventured
Nothing's gained
I'd love to think of you again

But I know I won't

If nothing's ventured
Nothing's gained
I long to talk with you again
