

When I Know More

We Were Promised Jetpacks

When I know more, I'll come and find you, when I know more, I'll pay attention too
When I know more, when I know more

If it all goes out of the window, I'll regret it, but I'll accept it

When I know more, when I know more Open up your door, open up your floor, I'll sleep where I want to sleep
I'll be where I want to be

When it's all gone, I'll take a moment, that I'll picture I'll treasure
I'll always remember I'll tear it to pieces before anyone sees it

When I know what I want, then I'll take it

When I know more, I'm gonna find you, when I know more, I'll pay attention too

Open up your mind, open and find There's no where I'm meant to be There's nothing I'm meant to be

If it all goes out of the window, I'll regret it, expect it and learn to accept it Prepare for the worst and I'll hope for the best

(When I know more)

When I know who I am, then I'll meet me
