

It feels like forever
That I'm left wondering how you have been
And all the time we've lived in between
Since you were here right next to me

We were together
Then we just came apart at the seams
And somewhere we forgot how to dream
Let go to all that could have been

I heard that you found someone else
Who gives you so much more
But deep in my soul, wanna know
Do you think of me at all?

I thought you'd be the rest of my life
You'd be my days and every one of my nights
Light up the sky when all the stars won't shine
You and I, You and I, You and I

I thought we'd be til the end of time
But we gave up before the finishing line
We said it all but never said goodbye
You and I, You and I, You and I
Can we just rewind?
Can we just rewind?

We should never say never
'Cause just like us the seasons can change
And put back all the pieces again
'Cause time can heal and it can mend

But deep in my soul I wanna know
Do you think of me at all?
Is your heart still as broke as before or is it fixable

I thought you'd be the rest of my life
You'd be my days and every one of my nights
Light up the sky when all the stars won't shine
You and I, You and I, You and I

I thought we'd be until the end of time
But we gave up before the finishing line
We said it all but never said goodbye
You and I, You and I, You and I
Can we just rewind?

Can we just rewind?
Can we just rewind?
Can we just rewind?
You and I, You and I, You and I
Can we just rewind?
