

Out of Tune

Wet

My life without you
Like the sky without the moon
I think you have all you wanted to
Maybe not now, but soon

Oh, what am I gonna do?
I'm always looking around for you
There's a table meant for two
You would have moved it to the other room

I think you have all you wanted to
Maybe not now, but soon
Oh, maybe not now, but soon

And the world looks so run down
I keep walking around this little old town
And you're all that I can think about

Don't let the sun go down
I don't wanna be alone in this house
My life without you
Like a note sung out of tune
I think you have all you wanted to
Maybe not now, but soon
Oh, maybe not now, but soon

Just keep living my life without you
Baby that's all that I could anyways
I'm a woman without a clue
Just keep stumbling through this afternoon

And I can see what's true
Maybe I was never that good for you
There's so much that we never got to do
Maybe we still will sometime soon
Maybe not now, but soon

My life without you
Like a note sung out of tune
I think you have all you wanted too
Maybe not now but soon
