

You're Not Wrong

Wet

You wanna sail away
Into a setting sun
Throw it all away
For your only one
I tried to pull away
You said I'm too far gone

But when I think about it baby
And I've been thinking hard and long
Oh, when I think about it baby
You're not wrong, no, no
You're not wrong, no, no

You wanna start right away
Said a new day's begun
It's not as easy for me
To just get along
Is something getting to you?
Someone else's arms
Got into the evening
It's all over grown

And when I think about it baby
And I've been thinking hard and long
When I think about it baby
You're not wrong, no, no
You're not wrong, no, no

Wanna see my face
In a setting sun
Throw your life away
For your only one
I tried to pull away
But you say it's already on

And when I think about it baby
And I've been thinking hard and long
When I think about it baby
You're not wrong, no, no
You're not wrong, no, no, wrong
No, no, no
Oh yeah, oh no no, oh no no
You're not wrong
You're not wrong, oh no
You're not wrong
