

Rolling Stone

Whiskey Myers

The way your lips move across your little fingers
With your innocent starry-eyed stare
Girl you best leave me alone
You want what you can't have is all
And I ain't what you need and it ain't fair
No I ain't what you need and it ain't fair

I've been sinking down for so long baby, come on There ain't nothing left for me out on these highways that I ro
am
If all I'm doing just leaving, you're crying alone, I'm coming
home
'Cause I'm all yours baby, I ain't no rolling stone

That ole moonlight has always called me to leaving Dusty bars and chasing stars all through the night
One more drink and one more song
But now that hollow feelings gone
'Cause girl you got them stars up in your eyes
Yea girl you got them stars up in your eyes

I've been sinking down for so long baby, come on
There ain't nothing left for me out on these highways that I ro
am
If all I'm doing just leaving, you're crying alone, I'm coming
home
'Cause I'm all yours baby, I ain't no rolling stone
Ain't no rolling stone

I've been sinking down for so long baby, come on
There ain't nothing left for me out on these highways that I ro
am
If all I'm doing just leaving, you're crying alone, I'm coming
home
'Cause I'm all yours baby, I ain't no rolling stone
Ain't no rolling stone
Yeah I ain't no rolling stone
