

Turn Around

Whiskeytown

want to cross but I don't think I can it's too weak here even where I stand come here darling let me see you, hold my hand so we can mend your broken halo all I want from you all I want from you, is for you to turn around, turn around want to damage so I damaged it some we use to have it all now I just got some silent perfections mystery all easy to fall from your lips all the while lies are told to me in shapeless secrets
all I want from you
can't you turn aroundcan't you turn aroundcan't you turn around why can't you turn around turn around, turn around, turn around
