West L.A. Nights

White Wizzard

Driving west on the boulevard watching the sunset in the sky Good times all around me yeah I'm feeling free and flying high

Girls dressed to kill walk by as the moon is rising
Streets alive with the glitter of hopes and dreams and fantasizing
The Santa Ana winds are blowing through my soul
Makes me want to lose all self control

The rainbows rocking and the boys are ready to go Oh Oh...

Rocking in the streets and I'm feelin' alright
My soul is a rollin' in the neon lights
Riding the stars on a West LA night,
West LA night
The place where rockers used to rule
You still hear that magic sound
An earthquake of those crazy times
Shakes it's energy all around

Everyone gambling one more time, shooting for a royal flush
Magic flowing through your veins in the night you feel the rush
Dreams are always golden and they always shine
City of Angels you'll always be mine
