

Heartbreaker

Whitney Duncan

I can't stay away, no, I can't run from you
Hurt me that's ok, I'll take my chances
Midnight's tryin' to say we're slow dancin' with danger
And last call's tryin' to kick us out, but it's too late for le avin' now

Boy, you're gonna be my heartbreaker
My world wrecker, my earthshaker
If I'm the drunk you're another round
If you're the fire I'll be ashes on the ground
You're gonna be the ride that spins me dizzy
But I'm a let you take me til it kills me
Til it kills me now or later
Boy, you're gonna be my heartbreaker
My my heart break, my my heartbreaker...

Go on mess up my head and, baby, while you're at it
Go on mess up this bed and use me up tonight
I'll be your jukebox Juliet, but if this song ever stops playin'

I won't have no regrets, I'll just remember when I said

Boy, you're gonna be my heartbreaker
My world wrecker, my earthshaker
If I'm the drunk you're another round
If you're the fire I'll be ashes on the ground
You're gonna be the ride that spins me dizzy
But I'm a let you take me til it kills me
Til it kills me now or later
Boy, you're gonna be my heartbreaker
My my heart break, my my heartbreaker...
