

You and the Horse

Whitney Duncan

Yep

Yeah, I'm fed up
I've had more than enough of all of your
Same old stuff
So I'ma let you have what you been goin' out for

You can have beers with your boys any time that you want
Ain't gotta worry about me worryin' 'bout when you comin' home
Them days are gone

Take your boots by the door, pearl-snap off the floor
Take your "I'm gonna change," I don't need it anymore
Take your take-me-back smile, here's your hat, baby, I'll
Be over you before you even make the county line
Don't wait on that sunset, ride on off
You and the horse you rode in on
Yep

Yeah, I've made up
My out-of-second-chances mind
So, boy, tough luck
If you think I just need a little time

Take your boots by the door, pearl-snap off the floor
Take your "I'm gonna change," I don't need it anymore
Take your take-me-back smile, here's your hat, baby, I'll
Be over you before you even make the county line
Don't wait on that sunset, ride on off
You and the horse you rode in on
Yep
Yeah, you and the horse

You can have beers with your boys any time that you want
Ain't gotta worry about me worryin' 'bout when you comin' home
'Cause them days are gone

Take your boots by the door, pearl-snap off the floor
Take your "I'm gonna change," I don't need it anymore
Take your take-me-back smile, here's your hat, baby, I'll
Be over you before you even make the county line
Don't wait on that sunset, ride on off
Yep, you and the horse you rode in on
Yep
You and that horse
